REGULAR SESSION

Ali Hori: Thank you Board members for giving me this opportunity to share my report. Let me start by saying that our current enrollment today is 351 students. On February 7, 2020 we had a meeting with our school parents: 58 parents attended.

We discussed our plans to save Iftin. We respect and celebrate the uniqueness of all our students and we provide them with high quality education, confidence, and the tools they need to be successful. Many parents were disappointed in SDUSD decision.

On February 24, 2020 admin meeting, we discussed and shared our appeal draft. Finally, we summited our school Appeal to San Diego County of Education March 3, 2020. We are scheduled to have a public hearing on April 8, 2020 and Action date on May 13.. As you may be aware, due to the Solar Construction in our parking lots, some sections are now closed. We have informed all parents to take safety precautions when entering the parking lot. If you have any questions and comments, I am now ready to answer.

Mulki Hersi: How long before the construction is complete?

Abdi Mohamud: Our solar panel installation will be completed May 4, 2020.

Ali Hori: We communicated to all parents through flyers with a visual Map. We sent SchoolMessenger automated messages to all stakeholders to take safety precautions.

Faisal Ali: We will now proceed to the Action item, which is to approve 2019-20 2nd Interim.
